G                                               Bm
1. Lo the storms of life are breaking, Faithless fears our hearts are shaking
   C                   D                        C                     Cm6
   For our succor undertaking, Lord and Savior, help us!
G                                               Bm
2. Lo! The world from Thee rebelling, Round Thy Church in pride is swelling
   C                   D                        C                     D
   With Thy word their madness quelling, Lord and Savior, help us!

Em                              C
Bridge:              By Thy birth, Thy cross, and passion
   G                        D
   By Thy tears of deep compassion
   Em                              C
   By Thy mighty intercession
   G                        D
   Lord and Savior, help us!

C                D                    C
