Psalm 90

Capo V

1. Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place
   Through all the ages of our race;
   Before the mountains had their birth,
   From years which no beginning had
   To years unending
   Thou art God,
   Thou art God.

   2. Thou turnest man to dust again
   As yesterday when past appears
   So are to Thee a thousand years
   They, like a day, are in Thy sight
   Yes, like a passing, watch my night, Thou art God.

   3. O teach us Lord to count our days
   And set our heart on wisdom’s ways
   How long O Lord? Return, repent!
   And toward Thy servants now relent
   Each morning fill us with Thy grace
   We’ll sing for joy through all our days,
   Thou art God.

   4. According to the days we spent
   Beneath affliction Thou hast sent
   And all the years we evil knew
   Now make us glad our joy renew
   Thy work in all Thy servants show
   Thy glory on their sons bestow,
   Thou art God.

   5. On us let there be shed abroad
   The beauty of the Lord our God
   Our handiwork upon us be Established evermore by Thee
   Yes, let our handiwork now be Established by Thee, evermore,
   Thou art God.

   1. Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place
   Through all the ages of our race;
   Before the mountains had their birth,
   Or ever Thou hadst formed the earth;
   From years which no beginning had
   To years unending
   Thou art God,
   Thou art God.
