FREE GRACE

Words by Joseph Hart
and Matthew Smith
Music by Matthew Smith

1. You children of God, by faith in His Son
   Peace which none can destroy

2. This pardon, this peace which none can destroy
   For good deeds, good temper frames

3. It's not for good deeds, good temper frames
   God, by faith in His Son

Re-deemed by His blood and with Him made one
This treasure of grace and heavenly joy
From grace it proceeds, and all is the Lamb's
Free Grace

This union with wonder and rapture be seen
The worthless may crave it, it always comes free
No goodness, no fitness expects He from us

Which nothing shall surrender, without or within
The vilest may have it, was given to me
This I can well witness, for none could be worse

Free grace, has paid for all my sin.
Free grace, though it cost so much to him.

Free grace, has freed even my will.

Free grace, to the end.
sustains me still.

Sick sinner, expect no balm but Christ's blood

Your own works reject, the bad and the good
None ever regret it that on Him rely

Though guilty as Saul or Jonah or I

Free grace, has paid for all my sin.
Free grace, though it cost so much to him.

Free grace, has freed even my will.

Free grace, to the end sustains me still.
